

The State of Washington

Proclamation

WHEREAS, Washington State is home to 29 federally recognized Indian tribes who play a vital role in the social, political, and economic fabric of the state; and

WHEREAS, members and descendents of tribes from all over the country also reside in the state of Washington; and

WHEREAS, the many contributions of American Indians have enhanced freedom, prosperity, and the cultural diversity of this state; and

WHEREAS, citizens of Washington are very proud of the history and heritage of American Indians in this state, and recognize the many contributions made by American Indian citizens to the economy, culture, arts, natural resources, education, and industries; and

WHEREAS, Washington joins other states across the nation in celebrating American Indian Heritage Month, honoring the unique heritage of this continent's First Peoples, and reaffirming a commitment to remember their contributions to our nation;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Christine O. Gregoire, Governor of the state of Washington, do hereby proclaim November 2008 as in Washington State, and I urge all citizens to join me in this special observance.

American Indian Heritage Month

Signed this 10th day of November, 2008

Christine O. Gregoire
